Yvonne Wong

Current student of the Bachelor of Health Information and Services Management (Year 4)

My last three years of study at TWC have been fulfilling. This programme helped me discover my passion for health information, solidifying my career goals. The patient guidance provided by the faculty has further motivated me to diligently pursue my studies. Besides, the hands-on internships and part-time work at public and private hospitals have deepened my understanding of the field, enhancing my workplace readiness. I feel very fortunate to be in this programme, which has facilitated my self-exploration and instilled confidence in my ability to pursue a rewarding healthcare career.

- Tung Wah College will adjust the tuition fee of its programmes based on the Composite Consumer Price Index to be announced by the Government annually.
- Tuition fees are normally charged by two instalments per annum and are payable before the commencement of each semester. New students are required to settle the balance of the tuition fee for the first semester (i.e. after deducting deposit) upon programme registration in August.
- Students are required to pay additional fees for all retake/additional courses which would be charged at the rate of the normal cohort and be calculated by the number of credits to be taken. Please refer to the College's Fees Regulation at https://www.twc.edu.hk/en/Administration_Units/fo/our_service/student-area for details.

- The tuition fee for the programme under the Study Subsidy Scheme for Designated Professions/Sectors (SSSDP) is the net fee paid by a student after deduction of subsidy from the Government. For annual subsidy amounts, please refer to <https://www.cspe.edu.hk/en/sssdp/>.
- All fees paid are non-refundable and non-transferable, and apply to local applicants only.

Notes

- (1) Some programmes may stipulate additional requirements for admission. For more information on the programme-specific admissions requirements, please refer to the individual programme webpages.
- (2) For non-Chinese-speaking learners, alternative Chinese Language qualifications will be accepted for students who have met the specified conditions: (a) students who have learned Chinese Language for less than 6 years while receiving primary and secondary education; (b) students who have learned Chinese Language for 6 years or more in schools, but have been taught an adapted and simpler Chinese Language curriculum not normally applicable to the majority of students in local schools. ApL Chinese (for non-Chinese speaking students) should, in general, be accepted as an alternative Chinese Language qualification, among other acceptable alternative Chinese Language qualifications.
- (3) The Applied Learning (ApL) subjects do not include ApL Chinese (for non-Chinese speaking students) as this subject is introduced to provide an additional channel exclusively for non-Chinese speaking students to obtain an alternative Chinese language qualification. For the 2012-2017 HKDSE Examinations, students attaining the results of "Attained" and "Attained with Distinction" in the ApL subjects are accepted as attaining the competencies required at Level 2 and Level 3 or above of Category A subjects of the HKDSE Examination respectively for the purposes of further studies and work. Effective from the 2018 HKDSE Examination, the reporting of students' performance is refined to "Attained", "Attained with Distinction (I)" and "Attained with Distinction (II)". Performance of "Attained with Distinction (I)" is comparable to Level 3 while "Attained with Distinction (II)" is comparable to Level 4 or above of Category A subjects of the HKDSE Examination.
- (4) Please refer to the College's website for examples of equivalent non-local qualifications for admission to higher diploma or bachelor's degree programmes.
