Bachelor of Health
Science (Honours) in Nursing

護理學(榮譽)健康科學學士

The programme aims to prepare students for professional careers in nursing with competence to deliver high quality patient care and make significant contribution to the health of the community.

Programme Objectives

- To develop students' competence in health promotion, maintenance and restoration, and prevention of illness through the delivery of primary, secondary and tertiary health care in various hospital and community settings;
- To equip students with problem-solving and clinical reasoning skills;
- To equip students with effective communication skills for delivery of individualised care as well as facilitation of teamwork;
- To provide students with experiential learning opportunities to facilitate integration of theory and practice in their chosen profession; and
- To nurture students' holistic view by expanding students' understanding and appreciation of other cultures and environments.

Professional Recognition

- Graduates are eligible to apply for the license of Registered Nurses (RN) “註冊護士” with The Nursing Council of Hong Kong (NCHK).

Career Prospects and Further Studies

- Graduates can start their careers in health and social care areas, including hospital and community settings.
- In hospital, graduates can work at acute and non-acute units such as the emergency department, operating room, paediatrics, medical and surgical units.
- In the community setting, graduates can contribute to residential care services such as care of the elderly and care of the disabled. They can also work at family and child clinics, outpatient departments, ambulatory day-care centres, etc.
- Graduates who wish to have career advancement as an advanced practice nurse, nurse consultant, nurse manager, academic faculty member, researcher, etc. may pursue postgraduate studies in various areas such as master's or doctoral degree in education, nursing, public health, social science, health service management etc.

- Tung Wah College will adjust the tuition fee of its programmes based on the Composite Consumer Price Index to be announced by the Government annually.
- Tuition fees are normally charged by two instalments per annum and are payable before the commencement of each semester. New students are required to settle the balance of the tuition fee for the first semester (i.e. after deducting deposit) upon programme registration in August.
- Students are required to pay additional fees for all retake/additional courses which would be charged at the rate of the normal cohort and be calculated by the number of credits to be taken. Please refer to the College's Fees Regulation at https://www.twc.edu.hk/en/Administration_Units/fo/our_service/student-area for details.

- The tuition fee for the programme under the Study Subsidy Scheme for Designated Professions/Sectors (SSSDP) is the net fee paid by a student after deduction of subsidy from the Government. For annual subsidy amounts, please refer to <https://www.cspe.edu.hk/en/sssdp/>.
- All fees paid are non-refundable and non-transferable, and apply to local applicants only.

Admission Requirements

Year 1 Entry

For Year 1 entry to bachelor's degree programmes, applicants should meet one of the following requirements⁽¹⁾:

Notes

- (1) Some programmes may stipulate additional requirements for admission. For more information on the programme-specific admissions requirements, please refer to the individual programme webpages.
- (2) For non-Chinese-speaking learners, alternative Chinese Language qualifications will be accepted for students who have met the specified conditions: (a) students who have learned Chinese Language for less than 6 years while receiving primary and secondary education; (b) students who have learned Chinese Language for 6 years or more in schools, but have been taught an adapted and simpler Chinese Language curriculum not normally applicable to the majority of students in local schools. ApL Chinese (for non-Chinese speaking students) should, in general, be accepted as an alternative Chinese Language qualification, among other acceptable alternative Chinese Language qualifications.
- (3) The Applied Learning (ApL) subjects do not include ApL Chinese (for non-Chinese speaking students) as this subject is introduced to provide an additional channel exclusively for non-Chinese speaking students to obtain an alternative Chinese language qualification. For the 2012-2017 HKDSE Examinations, students attaining the results of "Attained" and "Attained with Distinction" in the ApL subjects are accepted as attaining the competencies required at Level 2 and Level 3 or above of Category A subjects of the HKDSE Examination respectively for the purposes of further studies and work. Effective from the 2018 HKDSE Examination, the reporting of students' performance is refined to "Attained", "Attained with Distinction (I)" and "Attained with Distinction (II)". Performance of "Attained with Distinction (I)" is comparable to Level 3 while "Attained with Distinction (II)" is comparable to Level 4 or above of Category A subjects of the HKDSE Examination.
- (4) Please refer to the College's website for examples of equivalent non-local qualifications for admission to higher diploma or bachelor's degree programmes.
